

WHEREAS; a high-quality, accessible public education is vital to the success of the state and country, as it plays an essential role in safeguarding the freedom and autonomy of the state's residents and communities; and

WHEREAS; educating Wisconsin's youth is a priority for the state, and the work of educators, administrators, policymakers, parents, and guardians is crucial to advancing this priority and improving educational opportunities for every student; and

WHEREAS; recognized nationwide since 1978, Education and Sharing Day is a tribute to the work of the Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson, a global spiritual leader of the Jewish community and a tireless advocate for youth around the world; and

WHEREAS; the Rebbe dedicated his life to promoting the betterment of all people through an increased focus on education, emphasizing the importance of ensuring access to high-quality education for all kids; and

WHEREAS; today, the state of Wisconsin honors the Rebbe's legacy by encouraging acts of goodness and kindness in his memory and reaffirms its commitment to establishing an educational infrastructure that enables all students to reach their full potential;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim April 2 2023 as

WISCONSIN EDUCATION AND SHARING DAY

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state's residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 31st day of March 2023.

TONY EVERS, Governor

By the Governor:

SARAH GODLEWSKI, Secretary of State